Join us for the global launch of UNICEF's Programming Guidance for Parenting of Adolescents, which aims to strengthen evidence-based programming for parenting of adolescents. Building on parents' strengths and equipping them to provide support to their adolescent children can have a profound positive influence on their children's development.

The Webinar will:

- Launch UNICEF's Programming Guidance for Parenting of Adolescents and share highlights
- Explore the value of strengthening evidence-based programming for parenting of adolescents
- Hear from adolescents and parents about adolescent development and the parenting relationship
